

Certification Regarding Relationships with PricewaterhouseCoopers

1. Alumni and Familial Relationships with PwC:

(i) Are you a former PwC partner or PwC practice staff member? Yes No

If yes, what was your PwC firm of employment, position when leaving PwC, and in what year did you leave?

(ii) Are any of your immediate family members (spouse, child, dependent, parent, or sibling) currently employed at PwC (other than employment in a non-professional capacity)? Yes No

If yes, provide family member's name, position, and PwC office where they are employed.

2. Tax Services from PwC:

Does PwC currently provide personal tax services to you or to your immediate family member (spouse, child, dependent, parent, or sibling)? Yes No

If yes, provide the name/family relationship of the recipient of services and the name of the PwC Tax Consultant.

3. Joint Business Relationships with PwC:

Do you participate as a "key person" in any joint business relationship (JBR) between another entity and PwC? Yes No

If yes, what is the name of the other entity for which you are a "key person" participating in a JBR with PwC? What is your position at the other entity?

Date

Signature

Print Name

A "key person" at the entity with which PwC has a joint business relationship (the "JBR entity") is one who:

- (i) Has control over the JBR entity by virtue of having direct or indirect control over the JBR entity; or
- (ii) Has significant influence or control over the JBR entity and the individual is involved in facilitating/arranging the JBR or in the JBR's operations, or shares directly in the economic risks or rewards of the JBR; or
- (iii) Appears together in the marketplace with a PwC partner or practice staff member in connection with a JBR with a market-facing element, such as co-presenting at an event or co-authoring a publication.